Dear Sir:

I am writing to tell you I will call at your place of business Friday, May 1st between the hours of 8 and 12 P. M. Will appreciate you having tickets or the cash for their sale available.

If for the convenience of the fans you want some additional General Admission tickets left with you until Saturday night, we will arrange this at the time I call on you, however, it will be necessary to have the report ready for the Box seats, as I must check with the Park Saturday Morning.

Thanking you for your cooperation in handling the tickets.

Very truly yours,
